NO. 61.

LATE MINING NEWS.

ABOUT THE INTERESTS OF UTAH COUNTY PEOPLE.

Iron Company's Election—Eldorado Property—Madsen Gold Mining Company Incorporated—Work on the Lulah—The Central Mammoth—Locations—Prorogs of Labor—Survey Ordered—Notes and Personal.

The annual meeting and election of the stockholders of the Utah Valley Iron company was held in Provo yesterday. The following directors were chosen: A. A. Noon, W. R. Pike, Thos. Beedley, J. C. Graham, A. D. Holdaway, W. H. Dusenberry and A. O. Smoot. The newly elected directors chose the following officers: president, A. A. Noon; vice-president, W. R. Pike; secretary and treasurer, W. H. Dusenberry. The company owns a large tract of valuable iron deposits on the east side of Tintic District, and supply large quantities of the ore for fluxing purposes.

Eldorado Property.

The Eldorado M. & M. Co. has three full claims and situated about five and one-half miles south of the city of Payson, in Payson canyon, Utah county. This property was located in May, 1897, by J. F. Thompson, G. T. Bridges, Thomas Cloward, and L. T. Jacobs, the tunnel is about 1200 feet north of the Honey Comb Springs, the tunnel is about 110 ft. on the foot wall of the claim, the vein dips to the east at about 70 degrees and four to five tons of ore on the dump showing assays from 20 to 70 per cent, two to fifteen ounces of silver, $1.00 to 2.50 in gold. This property has been examined by Supt. John A. Kirby of the Bullion-Becs and Champion mine in Tintic, and Capt. George Ryan. The property is about one mile down the canyon from the Co-op saw mill, good wagon road up the canyon to within 700 feet of the mine. William Hatfield, president; G. T. Bridges, vice-president and general manager. There is plenty of water in the canyon the year round, for power to run mine and mill plant. —Juab County Republican.

New Mining Company.

The Madsen Gold Mining company has been organized with a capitalization of $10,000 in shares of 10 cents each. The incorporators are George T. Smith, Carl J. Peterson, Richard W. Madsen, Peter M. Madsen and J. Fred Schillingman, and the property consists of what is known as the Madsen group of three claims, located in the Gold Mountain district.

The officers are P. G. Madsen, president; Carl J. Peterson, vice-president; Richard W. Madsen, secretary and treasurer.

Messrs. Peterson and Smith are Springville men, while the other parties belong at Salt Lake.—Springville Independent.

Mineral Survey Ordered.

The survey general has issued order for patent survey No. 3335, for the High Roller lode in Santaquin mining district, Utah county. Application made by High Roller Mining company. V. F. Strange, surveyor.

Locations.

The following locations have been filed with the county recorder:

Strong and King Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, in Tintic mining district, by John A. Strong et al.

April Pool No. 2, in Alpine mining district, by George Beck et al.

Pala and Pandora Extension, in Camp Floyd mining district, by Daniel Eyer.

Killarney, in Old Lehi mining district, by A. T. Moore et al.

Old Deadman's Lode and Big Silver Slipper, in Tintic mining district, by John Bestelmeyer et al.

General Mohke, in Tintic mining district, by Catherine Bestelmeyer et al.

Proof of Labor.

Affidavits of assessment work have been filed with the county recorder:

Livingston, in Tintic mining district, by W. J. Fregoning et al.

General O'Neil, in North Tintic mining district, by John Hanley.

Mining Notes.

Geo. Crooks has commenced suit at Nephi against Jesse Knight & Sons for $15,000, claiming damages for injuries received in the defendant's mines in Tintic.

The case of C. A. Mace and wife vs. Jesse Knight & Sons was to be heard before arbitrators in Salt Lake Monday, but owing to an objection to one of the arbitrators, did not come up. A new set of arbitrators will have to be chosen.

W. H. Wilson returned Saturday from Tintic where he spent several days looking over the district in company with J. D. Wood, an Idaho capitalist.

B. F. Fleiner and J. K. Bishop leaves in a few days for Death Canyon to resume work on their property there. On this trip they will make a substantial ore shipment.

John W. Wood and Adam Burt of Spanish Fork were in Provo Monday. They came up from De Lamar a few weeks ago for a visit to friends, and will return to the great Nevada gold camp next week. The boys are interested in the Blizzard group and expect to develop a big mine. Samples of the ore they have with them justify their faith.

Charles Hawkins, of Payson, interested in the Lulah mine at Diamond, reports work progressing favorably with two shifts under the management of Hayes and Smith who have a contract for sinking a 200-foot shaft. The work will be pushed with three shifts. When the 200 level has been reached a drift will be run to the ledge which is estimated will not be more than fifty feet distant. The Lulah adjoins the Joe Bowers, and it is expected that good values will be obtained.—Juab County Republican.

A. B. and J. W. Rockhill went down from Payson to Tintic Sunday night to inspect progress of the work on the Central Mammoth company's property, of which company the former is president. They report that two shifts are working on the property and that the shaft will be sunk as rapidly as possible to the 500 level. The property lies in Mammoth Hollow and the owners have the greatest confidence in striking ore with depth. The company is capitalized at $20,000, divided into 400,000 shares at 5 cents each, and the treasury stock is being rapidly taken up at par.

Godowsky.

Every music lover in Utah county should flock to the Tabernacle next Saturday evening and see and hear the greatest pianist of today, Godowsky. He will appear in a beautiful and varied program that evening.

He brings his superb piano with him and carries his own piano tuner. Prices 50 cents reserved seat, and 50 and 25 cents admission.

"Godowsky's technique is thorough, his execution conspicuous for the directness and simplicity, and his manner delightfully easy and unaffected."—New York Times.

Everywhere this distinguished master receives warm praise. Here is a sample from a Capital critic: "To illustrate the wonders of his execution in octave glissando, both ascending and descending the scale, he possesses a rare and liquid touch that is only equaled by Paderewski."—Washington Post.

Hobson as a Kiss.

And as a daring and competent naval officer has obtained a world wide reputation, but it is no greater than that of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway as a caterer to the comfort and safety of the general traveling public. Being the short line between Omaha and Chicago, and running the fastest trains between those points, it is natural that they should have obtained that reputation.

PROGRESSIVE PROVO.

SOME PEOPLE ARE IN THE LINE OF PROGRESS.

Information About Such an Establishment Gleaned by the Democrat Scribe—Building Up the Community.

During the daily peregrinations of THE DEMOCRAT man it is a pleasure to drop into the business houses of our progressive merchants and note the up-to-date methods in which business is conducted, the large lines of all classes of merchandise which are carried and the low prices quoted, which present equal or greater advantages to the purchaser than he can secure by trading in Salt Lake.

One of these establishments which is most worthy of a visit from any one who desires to see an example of push and enterprise is the implement and machine house of J. F. Van Wageningen.

Mr. Van Wageningen has been engaged in his present business in Provo for about a year, and during that time has built up a large and constantly increasing business, and has established an enviable reputation for low prices, square dealing and courteous treatment. He is an enterprising and progressive citizen who is daily assisting in the advancement and building up of Provo. Owing to the great increase in his business, Mr. Van Wageningen was forced to forsake his former location on I street and to build a large and commodious office and warehouse on J street between the Provo Store and the postoffice. He moved into his new stand about three weeks ago, and is now well established and prepared to greet all possible customers and to display the large stock in his line to the best advantage. It is a revelation to look over his warehouse and see the immense stock of wagons, buggies and farming implements he is carrying.

Mr. Van Wageningen is agent for the well known Consolidated Implement company of Salt Lake City, and you will find at his warehouse all of the specialties handled by that company. In fact it may be said that you can secure here anything you may want from a plow point to a threshing machine. Look at this list of the most famous manufactures in the world: Cooper wagons, Haydock buggies, McCormick mowers, binders, hayrakes, etc., J. I. Case and Case plows, cultivators and harrows, Canton "Success" sulky plows, Orchard cultivator, also lines of other makes.

Mr. Van Wageningen just received a carload of buggies this week, and it can be said without the slightest exaggeration that he has on hand the finest line ever brought to Provo. If you want a harness, single or double, the place to get it is Van Wageningen's.

This season Mr. Van Wageningen is making a specialty of bicycles, and carries the best line of high grade wheels in the city. The names of the Stearns, Cleveland, Rambler and Tribune wheels are too well known to need comment. Wheelmen and women should call and look over this line.

Mr. Van Wageningen authorizes us to extend a cordial invitation for people to call at his warehouse and look over his stock. Don't be bashful. Drop in and look around. You will be treated right even if you do not purchase.

Remember the new location east side of J street between Provo Store and postoffice.

Pardoned.

Alma Murdock, a half breed, who was sentenced to the State prison for life by Judge Blackburn nearly eight years ago, was pardoned and released last Saturday. Murdock was convicted of the murder of Andrew Olds at Mant. He was represented at the hearing before the Board of Pardons by Attorney S. A. King of Provo, who has been engaged on the case for some time and had unearthed new evidence proving that the deed was committed in self defense. Charles C. Clifton, alias Davenport, was also pardoned. Clifton was convicted in Provo in March, 1894, of murder in the second degree for killing John Woods at Moab, and was sentenced to thirty years in the State prison by Judge H. W. Smith. Self defense was proven in this case before the board by newly discovered evidence.

Looks Like a Challenge.

Diamond has more running horses than any town of its size in Utah. Thomas Harvey is said to own the best horses and the boys of Diamond are getting them in shape to win some of Jesse Knight's money or for that matter anybody's money.—Juab County Republican.

About Sewage.

PROVO, March 29, 1899.

Editor DEMOCRAT—The Enquirer has another bad attack of colic, the exact nature of which is hard to determine. It has so many bad spells of one kind or another that its dissolution may be expected any time.

It is now working itself up over the sewage question, objecting to the factory race being used as a drain from a few new residences. How in this world will the Enquirer feel when it learns that measures are about to be set on foot to make a sewer district of four or five of the principle blocks in the city, and conduct it into the factory race, right down H street also? And there is one thing right here that we want to suggest to whoever has charge of that sewage department; that after the large drain pipe is laid from block 67 and ready for use, the very first thing to go through it should be the Enquirer plant, entire, presses, type, editor and all its nussy files. The very worst nuisance in the city would then be disposed of, and the health and prosperity of Provo assured C.

City Council.

The city council of Provo City met Monday evening and wrestled with the private sewer question, the result being that the petitions of L. Holbrook et al. and Jesse Knight et al. for permission to lay sewer pipes from their residences to the east drain and the factory race respectively were granted. The joint committees and the board of health also recommended that as soon as improvements are made in the race a sewer district be created to consist of block 67, south sides of blocks 68 and 69 and perhaps more. This is a much needed change and should be made.

Mayor Jones addressed the council in regard to another great nuisance, upon which action will doubtless be taken. The mayor said in part:

"I take pleasure in bringing to your notice a much needed improvement.

"Among many other advantages, Provo has excellent facilities for pasture and consequently can show as fine a collection of Durham, Jersey and other breeds of cows as any city in the State. But to have morning and evening parades of these bovine beauties right by and through our railroad depots, during the arrival of trains, from thence right up our principal thoroughfare, passing our hotels and places of worship to the business portion of the city, is getting very monotonous and a decided nuisance.

"The pasture and the cows are accessories to the city and not the city to them, and I request your honorable body to appoint a committee at this present sitting, to take measures for the opening up of a street or lane leading to the pasture, which I think can be obtained from the south end of N street for the eastern part of the city, and a lane to said pasture running east from the southern extension of I street, for the accommodation of the west part of the city, thereby taking the cows across the two tracks away from the railway yards and our leading thoroughfare. Said committee should also inform the First ward pasture company of the city's intention and obtain their co-operation in this much needed reform."

THE COUNTY COURT.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Consideration of the Question of a County Poor Farm—Appropriation for Highway Improvement.

The board of county commissioners met in special session Monday with all members present. The meeting was called by Chairman McEwan to consider the proposition of a county poor farm. The forenoon was passed by the commissioners and Sheriff Storrs in inspection of the Bunnell and Bullock farms, two places under consideration. No definite action was taken, but it is practically settled that such an institution will be established.

Matter of washout of county road between Payson and Spring Lake referred to Commissioner Hughes.

Two hundred dollars appropriated on recommendation of Davis for repair of Dry Creek highway. Adjourned.

OLD FOLKS' COMMITTEE.

Meets and Passes Resolutions of Thanks.

The committee on the old folks' entertainment met Monday evening to settle up the business end of the entertainment given last week. After the payment of all expenses a balance of over forty dollars remained on hand for use when another entertainment of the old folks is desired. The committee unanimously adopted the following:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Whereas, The custom of honoring the aged persons of our community was observed by the free presentation this year of the play entitled: "The Poor of New York," and

Whereas, The getting up of said play required both time and money, especially on the part of those taking part in the play, under direction of John C. Graham, and those furnishing the music, under the leadership of D. A. Swan; and

Whereas, Said persons have gratuitously given the Provo central committee for the entertainment of the aged their services for the said performance; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the said committee that resolutions of thanks be adopted and published, expressive of the high appreciation in which the said committee and the community hold the excellent performance given the aged, free of cost; and, be it further,

Resolved, That the said persons be publicly thanked for their gratuitous services for the evening's performance, to enable the said committee to pay all expenses incurred in putting the play on the boards.

Signed: JAMES E. DANIELS,

O. H. BERG,

JAMES CLOVE,
